Received a Finalist rating by Readers' Favorite in the children's Fantasy/Sci-Fi category, along with a 5-star review. Join the young Prince Royal, Pid, in his fabled quest to discover the Great Secret with the help of Firebreather, his true friend. Pid and Firebreather journey to the four kingdoms, each of which offers a possible path of discovery to the Great Secret. Along the way Pid finds other companions drawn to his quest. Prepared by his experiences in the four kingdoms, Pid encounters and fights the Black Demon. During the fabled struggle, with Firebreather's insight and his companions help, Pid discovers the answer to the Great Secret. Appealing to children in the middle-grades and the child-like senses in most adults of wonder, curiosity, and true friendship this fable is of a person learning where their real strength lies and about true friendship and undying love.

Metamorphosis

One of the most prolific authors in the history of history's most widely read magazine, The Reader's Digest, award winning

Roving Editor John G. Hubbell, recalls the adventures and thrills of four exciting decades of writing for an immense worldwide audience. One of the greatest thrills, he says, was hearing the founding Editor-in-Chief, the legendary DeWitt Wallace, instruct him on the day he brought him aboard to go wherever he had to go to find the information he needed for a story; "if you have to go to Timbuktu to get a paragraph to make a story right, you don't have to ask anyone's permission. Just be sure that when you bring in a story that it is definitive, that it contains everything that is worth knowing about the subject." Armed with that charge, Hubbell takes his reader where no reporter had gone before: *Through the Strategic Air Command's survival training program in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. *Through the training tank at the U.S. Navy's Submarine Training School, a ten-story-high silo filled with a quarter million gallons of water in which hopeful undersea warriors must prove they are not claustrophobic, and learn how to avoid a lung-destroying pulmonary embolism while escaping a downed boat. *On a realistic orbital flight around the world on NASA's fantastic space flight simulator. *On an exciting ride on the Navy's first nuclear-powered attack submarine. *To the discovery of a newly developing U.S. Army group called "Special Forces," which the world will soon come to know as "The Green Berets." *To the discovery of an until-then supersecret six-year-old Navy group called SEALs. *Through an objectively detailed investigation of the Kennedy Administration's behavior during the Cuban Missile Crisis. *To southeastern Spain to find the facts when the U.S. loses a hydrogen bomb. *To the facts about the Johnson Administration's conduct of the Vietnam War. *To the facts about the alleged "peace" that has obtained in Korea since the end of the Korean War, and about the North Korean seizure of the U.S.S. Pueblo and the Court of Inquiry that followed. *To the details of the American Prisoner of War Experience in Vietnam, in a work that the Washington Post characterized as "the standard book on the subject." If you were one of the millions who valued DeWitt Wallace's Reader's Digest, you'll love "Writing for Wally."

Pathways: Reading, Writing, and Critical Thinking Foundations

Jerry D Young was born at home, in Senath, Missouri July 3, 1953. At age 5 the family rented a small farm house on an active farm 40 miles southwest of St. Louis. While the family weren't farmers, they lived something of a homestead type life, raising a milk cow, sometimes two, and calves, a pig or two, chickens, and the occasional goat. Along with the stock, a large garden helped to feed Jerry's three brothers and two sisters for several years. Fishing and hunting contributed to the pantry, as did foraging the wild edibles on the property. At the age of 14, the family, minus a brother and two sisters that were now adults and on their own, moved back to Senath. Having been encouraged from an early age to read, Jerry was a regular patron of the Senath Branch Library. A love of a good story was born within him, and shortly before graduating high school, for a lack of stories that he liked at the library, he began to write short vignettes, and started taking notes for stories that he wanted to tell. Well, a full life interceded, and the writing didn't resume for several years. But while working a job with a much free time, and the then newfangled home computer, Jerry began to write in earnest. With the occasional gap in the process, Jerry continued to research and write, never believing he could ever be published. But when he turned 50, he wanted a change in his life, left the job he was doing and began focusing on his writing. When he became ill, the writing stopped, but not the inspiration. When he started writing again, in 2004, after getting the medical problems under control, he began to read some on-line stories dealing with emergency preparedness, one of his other loves. The die was cast. Now with over a hundred of the vignettes and short stories about how to survive disasters written, along with his other novels, Jerry decided to go for broke, adding one of his previous works every few days to his list of stories now available, Jerry continues to write, both the Prep/PAW stories, as well as action adventure with a little romance type stories that first got him started.

They say the only person you can trust is yourself. Rasuke doesn't have that luxury. Enter a world where humanity is all but extinct, where islands float in the sky, where angels and demons clash. It is a world where the warriors of the past and the technology of the future meet, where magic exists for some, and everything is upside down. In this world lives a boy. He lives as the village freak and has a habit of waking up next to dead bodies with no explanation as to how they got there. But one thing is certain: there's definitely something very, very wrong. All he wants is the chance to know where he came from, and what it's like to be human but when he does, he will be caught in between the many forces of this world. It is up to him to survive, and to find the meaning in it all. The Third Face is a tale of adventure, horror, romance, and, sometimes, utter nonsense. Phil N. Schipper's debut novel sets in motion not only an epic trilogy, but an entire universe.

A revised and updated edition of the personalized guide to Windows 10 written by technology expert William Stanek. Learn the new Microsoft operating system using this hands-on guide to mastering laptops, tablets, desktops and other computing devices running Windows 10. Whether you are a casual user, an IT professional or just someone who wants to learn how to use the operating system, you can learn everything you need to conquer the essentials by reading this book. Inside, you'll find practical advice and step by step procedures, documented examples and much, much more. One of the goals is to keep the content so concise that this personalized handbook remains compact and easy to navigate while at the same time being packed with as much information as possible. When you start working with Windows 10, you'll see at once that this operating system is visually different from earlier releases of Windows. What won't be readily apparent, however, is just how different-and that's because many of the most significant changes to the operating system are under the surface. These changes affect the underlying architecture, not just the interfaces. Click Look Inside and discover this hands-on computer handbook. Scroll to the top of the page and select the Buy Now button. Want something for your laptop, tablet, desktop or smart phone? You are living in a box. It's a nice comfortable box perhaps, with lots of windows. You can see other people, earning more than you, driving better cars than you, healthier than you, happier than you and it appears that they are just lucky, or have been privileged somehow. There are lots of reasons you think or believe they are doing better than you, but none of those reasons are correct. Only one reason is correct. They live in a different box. All of us live in boxes created by our minds that have been built to protect us and those boxes tell us where the edges of our reality are, the edges of our expectations. Good news; You CREATED the box. That means you can break it and remake it any way you want. You can expand the edges of your reality and attract bigger and better things for you and your family. This book is the key to your personal transformation, helping you become the most magnificent you that you can be. It's about understanding what sets you off balance and what brings you back to deep serenity. About what brings you peace and contentment, frees your mind of negativity and most importantly an understanding of how your thoughts in this moment weave your very future. Its about feeling, in a very real and profound way, your connectedness to everyone and everything, your power and your significance in this world and perhaps even to find your life's purpose. It's about understanding how the nature of reality and the power of your mind combined enable you to achieve anything you desire. My promise is this: You will finish reading this book a different person than the one who started reading it.

The Third Face

Summer isn't looking good for Alana Alcott, an urban teacher of gifted students. She's been court-ordered to teach summer school with Outward Bound instructor Mike Reynolds. Their students? Five unruly foster kids whose stories of abandonment mirror Alana's own childhood more than she wants to admit. Mike, in particular, initially chafes on Alana's nerves. She sees him as an overgrown Boy Scout, promoting a nature-to-nurture philosophy that may or may not help their troubled students. And troubled they certainly are, with problems ranging from behavioral issues to a looming gang recruitment. As Mike and Alana struggle to help their young charges connect with nature in the bleak concrete landscape of the projects, the two teachers find themselves increasingly attracted to each other. The demands of their students, however, interrupt their blossoming romance at every turn. Alana, meanwhile, finds herself forced to confront her own past—and the mother who abandoned her. Over the course of one short summer, seven lives will change, for good or ill. If Mike and Alana can help it, their students will find hope and direction. Doing so, however, may mean putting their own happiness on hold—or sacrificing it forever.

Pathways, Level 4A

A Journey to the Four Kingdoms

When neuroscience Ph.D. student, Morgan Carmichael, learns that the only thing between her and an associate professorship at Harvard is her lack of teaching experience, she thinks it's just a small bump in the road. In no time, Morgan has her course, Building Stronger Brains, her venue, the Green Acres Assisted Living Center, with eleven elderly students and one troubled teen. It doesn't take long for her to realize that she's in over her head and to top it all off, the arrival at the center of the disarmingly handsome intern makes it increasingly difficult for Morgan to focus. As Morgan struggles to keep things together, she finds herself connecting more closely with her students than she ever expected. Despite the challenges each of them face, they learn that it's never too late for life. And sometimes, the pathway to what we want leads instead to where we are meant to be.
